

ADVANCE HEALTH CARE DIRECTIVE

Including Power of Attorney for Health Care
(California Probate Code Sections 4600-4805 effective JULY 1, 2000)

Introduction. This form lets you exercise your right to give instructions about your own healthcare and/or to name someone else to make health care decisions for you. If you use this form, you may complete or modify all or any part of it. You are free to use a different form. In any case, agents designated and signatures required must be done in the manner prescribed herein. It is recommended that you use this form and complete the whole form. Completing this form will revoke any previous health care directives. It should be distributed accordingly to insure that records are current.

The form must be signed by two qualified adult witnesses or acknowledged before a notary public. You have the right to revoke this advance health care directive or replace this form at any time. If there is anything in this form you do not understand you should seek help from a professional.

Part 1: Power of Attorney for Health Care. Part 1 lets you name another individual as agent to make health care decisions for you if you become incapable of making your own decisions or if you want someone else to make those decisions for you now even though you are still capable. You may also name an alternate agent to act for you if your first choice is not willing, able, or reasonably available to make decisions for you. Your agent may not be an operator or employee of a community care facility or a residential care facility where you are receiving care, or your supervising health care provider or employee of the health care institution where you are receiving care, unless your agent is related to you or is a coworker.

Unless the form you sign limits the authority of your agent, your agent may make all health care decisions for you. This form has a place for you to limit the authority of your agent. You need not limit the authority of your agent if you wish to rely on your agent for all health care decisions that may have to be made. If you choose not to limit the authority of your agent, your agent will have the right to: (a) Consent or refuse consent to any care, treatment, service, or procedure to maintain, diagnose, or otherwise affect a physical or mental condition; (b) Select or discharge health care providers and institutions; (c) Approve or disapprove diagnostic tests, surgical procedures, and programs of medication; (d) Direct the provision, withholding, or withdrawal of artificial nutrition and hydration and all other forms of health care, including cardiopulmonary resuscitation; and (e) Make anatomical gifts, authorize an autopsy, and direct disposition of remains.

Part 2: Instructions for Health Care. Part 2 of this form lets you give specific instructions about any aspect of your health care, whether or not you appoint an agent. Choices are provided for you to express your wishes regarding the provision, withholding, or withdrawal of treatment to keep you alive, as well as the provision of pain relief. Space is also provided for you to add to the choices you have made or for you to write out any additional wishes. If you are satisfied to allow your agent to determine what is best for you in making end-of-life decisions, you need not fill out Part 2 of this form.

Part 3 and Part 4 (Optional). Part 3 of this form lets you express an intention to donate your bodily organs and tissues following your death. Part 4 of this form lets you designate a physician to have primary responsibility for your health care.

Copies. You should keep the original completed form and give a copy to your agent and alternate(s), physician(s), family members and others who may be called in the event of an emergency, other health care providers or institutions where you may receive health care. You should talk to the person(s) you have named as agent to make sure that he or she understands your wishes and is willing to accept responsibility as your designated health care agent or alternate.
